

Business Internship

IOM, with the support of the Belgian and Tunisian Governments, and in coordination with different partners at national level, will provide a group of targeted Tunisian students and university graduates with concrete opportunities to develop their competences in Belgium, and thus improve their chances of finding an adequate and lasting job in Tunisia.

Presentation of host company:

At Showpad, personalities and cultures connect across oceans to create something extraordinary. As a top 10 software company in the Inc. 5,000 Europe list, Showpad is changing the game when it comes to sales enablement. Our employees create the engagement and impact that drives our success as we expand globally.

In the morning, we're drinking San Francisco cold brew coffee with a side of Portland doughnuts – English scones for afternoon tea, and in the evening we're toasting success with Belgian tripel Westmalle to a Chicago house tune.
